

4 nights INCENTIVE

PARIS

Day One:

Arrival and transfer from Charles de Gaulle Airport

The city for which the word chic was invented. Seductive and aloof, old fashioned and stylish.

Paris is sure to captivate the senses. Whether you are searching for gastronomic greatness, cultural cachet, artistic endeavour or stylish shopping, there's no doubt Paris has got it all

For those who arrive early, join a local guide for a personalised walk of the hotel neighbourhood (la boulangerie, la poste, le tabac...) Hear the local history and tales while discovering the charm of the local Parisian streets.

Day Two:

See The City of Light

A fabulous way to explore Paris on your very own set of wheels! Highlights include Place de la Concorde and Les Invalides. Lunch at The Eiffel Tower, then walk off those calories by climbing up to its top. The magical views will be worth the trek! Stroll back to your hotel at your leisure, perhaps stopping for an éclair at the corner patisserie.

Evening

Odette et Georges welcome you to their intimate brasserie just steps from Notre Dame. Built as a Canon's Residence in 1512, Au Vieux Paris is one of the oldest building in Paris. Ingredients from organic Aveyron farms create authentic favourites of warm foie gras and duck a l'orange.

Day Three:

Morning - Da Vinci Code Paris

Dan Brown's thrilling bestseller visits Paris landmarks such as the Louvre, Jardins des Tuileries and the Arc de Triomphe along with some less well known attractions like Saint Sulpice and Pont du Carrousel. This panoramic tour retraces the footsteps of the central character Robert Langdon. In the magnificent rooms of the Louvre, see for yourself the masterpieces and works of art exposed in the book.

Afternoon – Citroen 2CV Rally

Venice has the gondola, New York the yellow cab, for you we have the iconic 2CV! Armed with street maps and cryptic clues, discover some of the city's secret places from the retro cosiness of your soft top. Stop for photos but don't forget it is a rally with prizes at stake so master each of the challenges!

Evening - The Automobile Club

Located on elegant Place de la Concorde, the Automobile Club counts among its eminent members Baron Guy de Rothschild and Gerard Wertheimer of Chanel. Behind its majestic façade lies the refined Salon Panhard-Levassor and it is here prizes will be awarded from the afternoon's Citroen rally. Salon Concorde is at your disposal for a gourmet dinner and dancing.

Day Four:

Versailles

Just ten miles southwest of Paris is the bourgeois suburb of Versailles, site of the grandest and most famous chateau in France.

At the time of Louis XIV, Versailles was the capital of France and everything and everyone revolved around its Sun King.

Your visit to the Royal Apartments retraces this sumptuous period in the history of France. The Hall of Mirrors, famous for the signing of the Treaty of Versailles, is sure to impress you as Louis XIV would have wished it to impress his guests.

Evening - Laduree Salon

Your final evening in Paris finds you in the elegant salon of Laduree on the majestic Champs Elyse.

With décor inspired by the ceilings of the Sistine Chapel and the Opéra Garnier, dinner in this elegant salon provides a delightful end to your time in Paris. Don't miss the double decker macaroon, 15,000 are sold every day!

Day Five:

Au revoir Paris

For further details contact:

24, rue Chauchat, 75009 Paris,
France

P: +33 (0)1 53 85 82 82

F: +33 (0)1 53 85 82 83

E: france@ovationdmc.com
www.ovationdmc.com