

A MUSICAL MEANDER THROUGH THE STREETS of DUBLIN

Here at Ovation Ireland we have knocked our heads together to come up with some exciting and innovative products which will knock your socks off! We've gone all cultural, drawing on our musical, sporting and artistic heritage to create a medley of fun and fresh experiences, guaranteed to "raise the roof" on any incentive programme. See below for more details...

Without giving too much away...make sure you have done your musical research before signing up for this electrifying activity...well at least make sure to know what Phil Lynott and Christy Moore look like! Join us as we take you on a musical meander through the streets of Dublin, where a "hands on" experience and a musical finale will distinguish the musical naturals from the musically challenged!

FOOTBALL KICKS & HURLING STICKS A LITTLE SLICE of CULTURE

Football Kicks and Hurling Sticks...well lets be honest, the title gives it all away! Yes my friends, today you get down and dirty and learn the skills of two of Ireland's oldest and most loved sporting games, gaelic football and hurling.

What the title doesn't tell you however is just how much fun it really is!

Trust us we are speaking from experience. Watch how your fellow colleagues react with a hurling stick in hand... you could soon discover who your true friends in the office really are ?

PORTRAIT PERFECTION WITH TASTY TREATS

Ever walked into a Gallery and felt completely clueless? Don't know your Picasso's from your Pinnocchio's? Well then, this is the experience for you! Today we send you off with an "Art Fanatic" who could teach you more about art in two hours than you would learn in a lifetime. You can't help but become captivated in her passion for art.

Finish off the morning In the opulent surrounds of the 5 star Merrion Hotel in the heart of Georgian Dublin enjoying some tasty treats in the form of "Art Tea" a witty interpretation of its world-class collection of contemporary Irish art.

This really is one special experience not to be missed!
