

MEETING 2 nights

PRAGUE

A city with a rich history of over a thousand years, Prague was established at the crossroads of centuries old trade routes connecting key centres on the European continent. Thanks to the preservation of its main sights it remains one of the most beautiful and visited cities on the Old Continent. After the Velvet Revolution of 1989 Prague went through an incredible development making it one of the most dynamic cities in Central Europe. Excellent infrastructure and breathtaking architecture combine with a fairytale atmosphere to create one of the most attractive locations for meetings and incentives.

Day One:

Morning

After a warm welcome at Prague Airport, a fleet of vintage Czech cars is waiting to transfer delegates to the Strahov Monastery terraces. Against a backdrop of stunning views over the red rooftops of the city, Prague Castle and the Vltava River, delegates enjoy traditional grilled sausages and Pilsner beer before continuing to the hotel of choice.

Afternoon - Meeting

Business meeting commences in one of the hotel's elegant conference suites.

Evening - Lobkowitz Palace

Vintage trams are ready to transfer guests from the hotel to Prague Castle where the Earl of Lobkowitz is waiting in the magnificent 16th century Lobkowitz Palace to share his family heritage. Marvel at the vast art collection amassed by his aristocratic ancestors, including original Beethoven and Mozart manuscripts, three priceless Brueghel paintings, two Canalettos, a Rubens and some Meissen porcelain. Then enjoy dinner in the breathtaking baroque setting of the Balcony Hall before retiring to the hotel where a "sustainable" local gift is waiting.

Day Two:

Morning -Prague's amazing race

Let the discovery of the 'city of one hundred spires' become a real experience! Navigate the cobbled city streets as teams are put to the test with several clues and tasks tied to the most remarkable landmarks. Set sail on the Vltava for an island picnic lunch with aperitifs served aboard the boat. Afternoon at leisure to explore Prague's quaint shops and artisan galleries.

Evening - Manto's extraordinary glass works

During this evening's cocktail reception at the hotel, a special opportunity to meet iconic contemporary artist Antonin Manto-Mrnka and view his enchanting work. Made from Czech iron, glass, porcelain and wood, his creations come in all shapes and sizes. Create your own glass artefact under his watch, a unique experience forever reminding you of your time in Prague. Dinner follows black out style in one of the darkest restaurants of the city. But not because the electrical power has failed... the mystery unfolds.

Day Three:

Departure

Your time in Prague is drawing to a close but before leaving for the airport in vintage coach, linger over breakfast at the famous Slavia Café where Manto returns to deliver the group's handcrafted glass creations.
